the NIGHTCHILD

The World Unseen, The World Unknown

Dreams

Night with the dark veil blinds your eyes
Like the stormy clouds cover the skies
There's nothing to see and nothing to feel
The only thing is left is just your dream

Close your eyes go to sleep
Close your eyes fall asleep

Dream slowly dies at the dawn of the day
Like the distant scream it fades away
Dances in your mind like the ghost of the past
You want to catch it, but it's too fast

The Majesty Of Night

Wait for the night look at the skies
Turn off the light and sit down
Open your eyes and see the stars
And touch the shadows all around

Children of the night sing their old hymns
Million eyes gaze at the moon
The majesty of night is everywhere
Open your heart you feel it too

Hear the spirits that whisper in trees
See how the bats dance in the moonlight
Open your eyes and abandon your fears
Just take a deep breath and step into night

New Ghoul Is Born

Take my hand drink my blood
Share my power be my slave
Guard my coffin while I sleep
I'll protect you are safe

New ghouls are born!

Nothing special it's in past
Now you are the one with me
My blood heals you gives you strength
You are mine so let it be

Dreammaster

I come and close your eyes
Since the dawn of times
You have nothing to fear
Your way to dreams is clear

And I will bring you dreams
About the sacred realms
They now belong to you
Believe me it is true

She was lost, now she's found again
And we sit in a circle of circumstances
Under the black veil and heavy gaze of silence
And I dive, I'm floating in the air
Melting the shadows with trails of lights
The night swirl is howling like wind
You're twisted in other day's time
I'm near when you sleep (at night)
So silently and deep
The dreams will give you wings
(Nothing will change it)
And I will guard your dreams
(Cause nothing will change it, nothing will change it)

Dead Bride

Deep under ground she lies and dreams
About the one who gives her wings
About the one who sets her free
She's dead but still in agony

She's always waiting in her white dress
But none wants her and none cares

The years ago she was betrayed
And now she's dead it is her fate
She lies and waits for words of oath
That set her free and break the curse

The years pass in grave she lies
But she still has the tears and cries
She still believe in love that saves
She lies in grave she dreams she waits

Des Mondes Kind

Wenn der Mond die Sonne verschlingt, die Schatten sich erheben,
Wenn der Wolf sein Nachtlied singt, dann wirst du dich ergeben
Ein eisiger Hauch flüstert gierige Worte,
Folge ihm, zu meiner Höllentpforte,
Geh hindurch und werde mein, du wirst es lieben, tot zu sein.

Lauf nicht weg und wehr dich nicht,
Die Pforte offenbart dir mein wahres Gesicht,
Unsterblichkeit ist nicht nur ein Traum,
Trau dich, trau dich,
Es schmerzt auch kaum

Weiche keinen Schritt zurück,
Das Schicksal dich so schwer bedrückt,
Habe keine Angst, lass es zu,
Den Lebenden lässt du keine Ruh'
Lauf nicht weg und wehr dich nicht,
Die Pforte offenbart dir dein Gesicht,
Unsterblichkeit ist dein Alptraum,
Trauere nicht, trauere nicht,
Der Tag ist dein Tod und die Nacht ist dein Raum
Das Lied der Wölfe laut erklingt,
Während deine Gier das Blut verschlingt,
Fern von jeder Menschlichkeit,
Bist du nur noch des Mondes Kind

Masquerade

Too much remains unseen under the cloak of night
And if I want to live I have to crawl and hide
My life is full of lies they are my second skin
I have to hide that I'm no more a human being

I have to hide so many things
I saw the hell I saw the heaven
And in eternal masquerade
I have to wear my mask forever

Restriction all around so many rules to follow
I have to hide from you my happiness and sorrow
Forever in disguise as all of our kind
We have to live in lies we have to crawl and hide

The Mischievous Cat From Mars

Thunder and the blinding lights
He is on his way from Mars
He brings mischiefs in your life
And he always makes you laugh

The mischievous cat from Mars
Scratches strings on my guitars
And he likes ice cream and fish
He will stay with you if you wish

He comes suddenly in room
Like the soft ray of the moon
And he always does his best
Seems he doesn't need the rest

Theatre Of Death

As usual curtains rise
The actors come at stage
They show you love they show you hate
True passion, fear and rage

And actors make the special show
As for the last time they will play
But this is theatre of death
Don't look at stage just go away

And actors bag you not to go
Although the show comes to its end
As usual curtains fall
And some spectators will drop dead

The Child Of Madness

You see the whole world through the glass
It's cracked, but it is clear
The visions occupied your brain
But they don't bring you fear
There's the wisdom in your words
Dressed in mysterious phrases
And through the veil of lies
You see the real faces

You treat this world as someone's joke
With all its joy and sadness
The kindred are afraid of you
You've found yourself in madness

This curse is haunting you
It's in your blood forever
With every passing year
It will increase its level
Dementia is your perfect arms
You poison minds with visions
Insanity becomes your realm
It is your own decision
